ORACLE E-BUSINESS SUITE
Betting & Gaming

ORACLE E-BUSINESS SUITE comes into play. How to effectively manage the processes that ca-acterise the world of betting & gaming? How to adapt to the dynamic changes of minds-in constant compliance with the regulations? Oracle, the world leader in technologies and systems for e-business and decision support, and Omnisoft have the right answer to these questions: it is called e-Business Suite for the betting & gaming, thanks to the advice and the 'experience from Omnisoft is based on a business model already tried and tested in the field. Oracle E-Business Suite for the betting & gaming, is in fact the range of solutions specifically designed to efficiently manage and analyze the amount of game data coming from retail outlets, manage aspects count-able and procurement network, to assess the financial and operating performance of individual types of play and shop and de-cide the most appropriate actions to bridge the gaps between forecasts and actual results. Widen the view, Oracle e-Business Suite for the betting & gaming is just one part of a complete solution for companies that Oracle offers all over the world with over 14000 installations.

OMNISOFT®
business software solutions

" Vertical specialization, Oracle e-Business Suite for the betting & gaming incorporates procedures and models conform to the already established and successfully applied in Italian companies "

Oracle E-Business Suite for the betting & gaming, features:

- Opening the data communication protocols game of international circuits

- Responsiveness to the Italian VAT legislation in force regarding gaming

- Ease of Use: Web graphical operating environment

- Customizing for commisurare functionality to the specific requirements of users and the organization

- Security, access control based on users' profiles

- Modularity and scalability, you can choose only the modules of interest, integrating with existing modules

- Economy proven methodology implementative Oracle allows installation in less time and certain costs

MANAGE EFFICIENTLY game data, the VAT legislation and procurement.

The centrality of the given system of game / VAT rules / data analysis and performance are the key of the Oracle E-Business Suite for the betting & gaming. The process of acquisition of the amounts of the game from the national and international circuits, is done through interfaces that allow immediate adjustment is also a rapid growth of outlets, both to changes in legislation or to changing management needs. In the accounting system within a dedicated structure, the consideration has all the features of the game that the data generated by providing the best basis for an analysis of revenues by business intelligence. You can also complement the traditional sectional VAT registers registers of the payments structured to the point of sale, type game etc.., with related reporting control. The management of procurement in self-service mode also allows you to streamline the process of providing the sales network while maintaining control and management of budgets.

IDENTIFYING THE DRIVER of costs and revenues

Oracle E-Business Suite for betting & Gaming is the best tool to optimize the management of general ledger accounting integrated with customers, suppliers and orders (procurement): records, timetables, clearing customers and suppliers, accounting and budget commitments, budgets, balance sheet and income statement for statutory, management, etc. ..
In addition, cost accounting, according to the dimensions of analysis applicable to the system of accounting records, non-accounting (not a newspaper) and statistics allows management to gain full visibility on the drivers of costs and revenues and promote a higher level of efficiency.

Control over the company

The native ability of the system to handle multiple companies belonging to the same financial group allows, in addition to the preparation of consolidated financial statements, to obtain management and analysis of costs and revenues of the group.

ORACLE Gold Partner